Because I'm Worth It

We all know women in our lives that are out there making a difference in their communities through volunteering and helping those around them. Now's your chance to do something for them: nominate them for L'Oréal's Women of Worth honors and awards (go to womenofworth.com from now until June 13th). It's a great way to show them that their actions aren't going unnoticed. 10 nominees will get $5000 each to give to their charities and a matching donation will be made on their behalf to the Ovarian Cancer Research Fund, L'Oréal's charitable partner since 1997. Of these 10 women, one will receive an additional $25,000 for their organization.

Let them know they've really impacted your life by following their example and signing up for community service activities near you. Maybe you'll influence someone else and, before you know it, you've started a volunteering chain reaction!
