Last Call for Women of Worth!

Is there a woman who inspires you? Who is doing amazing things in her community? Who deserves to have a light shined on her achievements? Nominate her TODAY for L'Oréal's Women of Worth Awards.

Thirteen Women of Worth honorees will be selected and recognized at a fancy-schmancy gala event in New York City. L'Oréal Paris will donate $2,500 in each honoree's name to a charitable organization of her choice, plus a $2,500 donation in her name to The Ovarian Cancer Research Fund. Additionally, the charity of one of the honorees, chosen by online votes from the public, will receive an additional $25,000 donation from L'Oréal Paris in her name. Holy guacamole!

It's the last day for applications, so nominate a worthy woman today.
