Community service

I just heard about this program and I think that it's just great! It's called the Women of Worth awards (sponsored by L'Oreal). If you know a woman who is truly making a difference in the lives of others by volunteering in the community, you can nominate her (your sister? Your mom? Your teacher? yourself? The main rule is that she has to be over 18!), through May 24, to win a $25,000 grant. Thirteen women will win—that's thirteen amazing ladies changing the worlds around them! Visit womenofworth.com for more info!
